++ Valid for broadcast between 0600 and 1800

Headline:
Sunshine on Sunday and Monday, then cloudier.

Today:
Some fog patches linger in places briefly, before clearing to give a dry day across the country with plenty of sun. Feeling mild, especially in any sunshine. Maximum temperature 12 deg C (54 deg F).

Tonight:
A clear and dry night, though some parts may see some fog development towards the early hours, particularly to the east. Chilly, with frost developing in places. Minimum temperature 0 deg C (32 deg F).

Monday:
A cloudy start, with some lingering fog, though this breaking up into the afternoon allowing for some brighter spells, particularly around any coasts. Light winds. Fog reforming into the night. Maximum temperature 11 deg C (52 deg F).

Outlook for Tuesday to Thursday:
Colder and cloudier into Tuesday, though still with sunshine in the west. Showers of rain then arrive during the evening, continuing through Wednesday and Thursday. Night-time frosts and fog likely.
